N. Current reclassification In/Out Call MILPER message.

1. This message applies to Regular Army Soldiers only and expires no later than 30 Sep 20.

2. MILPER Message 18-313, AHRC-EPF-R, Special MOS Alignment Promotion Program (SMAPP), is rescinded upon publication of this message.

3. Soldiers may reclassify into specific critical Military Occupational Specialties (MOS) identified in the SMAPP. Promotion of Soldiers reclassified into a SMAPP-designated MOS will be effective on the date of graduation from the MOS-qualifying school, which occurs after all training phases are completed and the MOS is awarded, provided they are otherwise eligible in accordance with reference B above. This message will be cited as authority for promotion in the promotion order.

4. Soldiers applying for entry into the SMAPP:

a. Must meet qualifications for promotion to the next higher rank, including Noncommissioned Officer Professional Development System (NCOPDS), minimum time in service and time in grade requirements, but are not required to be in a promotable status. Provided they are otherwise eligible in accordance with AR 600-8-19, paragraph 1-11 (including required NCOPDS) Soldiers will be promoted effective on the graduation date from the MOS-qualifying schools, which occurs after all training phases are completed and the MOS is awarded. When Soldiers complete the MOS-qualifying training without having first met the NCOPDS requirements for promotion as provided for in AR 600-8-19, paragraph 1-29, the promotion will be effective the date the NCOPDS requirement is met.

b. Must be fully eligible for reenlistment, retraining, and voluntary reclassification. Soldiers incur a service remaining requirement (SRR) for attending training. The SRR is calculated from the date the Soldier graduates training and is awarded the MOS. Upon approval of a reclassification request and prior to attending training, Soldiers must reenlist or extend to meet this SRR.

c. Must be endorsed by the first LTC/O5 commander in the Soldier's chain of command.

d. Will receive a memorandum from U.S. Army Human Resources Command (HRC) upon approval of reclassification and entry into the SMAPP. Reclassification is not complete until a reclassification control number (RCN) is issued by HRC; the RCN is required for publishing the MOS order. The notification memorandum and MOS order must be provided to the military personnel directorate at the gaining installation for publication of promotion orders.

e. Soldiers who enlist for any MOS listed in the SMAPP either through normal enlistment processing or via temporary pilot programs are not authorized promotion in accordance with the SMAPP.
